INNOVATIONS INTRODUCED AT FIRST MEETING OF TOWN COUNCIL

Business Expedited By New Procedure In Submitting Reports — Gavel Presented to Mayor For Use In Conducting Meetings — Necessity of Continued Economy Stressed By Mayor McPherson — Officials Appointed For Year.

The newly elected council of the town of Grimsby for the year 1934 held its first meeting on Wednesday evening last, the proceedings being characterized by the introduction of new procedure with the object of facilitating the transaction of business, the result being that the council adjourned at 9.30 o'clock.

Items of business and recommendations thereon were incorporated in the reports from the various departments presented, all motions being adopted on a standing vote of the councillors.

The council chamber was filled to capacity with ratepayers of the town. After the council had filled in and taken their seats, Mayor McPherson stepped forward and on behalf of the council, presented a gavel, suitably engraved, to Mayor McPherson. In doing so he assured the Mayor of their very best co-operation during the year. The gavel, he said, would do away with the need of calling order by the use of a loud voice.

The Mayor suitably acknowledged the presentation, after which he extended a welcome to each member of the council. He noted that the per capita debt of the town was $386, the population of the municipality being 19,660. He emphasized that we either have to levy for more money or cut down on operating costs as the burden of taxation was a heavy one but he did not desire to cut down on the workman.

Mayor McPherson was of the opinion that the town should increase its assessment and lower the tax rate, and believed that now was the time to do it.

Reeve Mogg, in his remarks, asked for the co-operation of the ratepayers and said they would welcome suggestions at any time. While the financial position of the town was a difficult one and some thought that the day has come to call in a commission, they were not going to give up and would do their best to come out at the end of the year somewhere near even.

As to the suggestion of the Mayor regarding the assessment he agreed with the proposal. Reeve Mogg noted the fact that he had been successful in getting a reduction of $37,000 in county assessment. He said that the county of Lincoln rate was the highest in the province.

Reeve Mogg also advocated holding the municipal elections in December instead of January. This would also result in the collection of taxes earlier as he felt that the payment of taxes around the middle of December came at an inopportune time for many ratepayers as it was too close to the holiday season.

Other members of the council were also called upon and spoke briefly. Fifty-six transactions were accomplished during December according to the police report. There were no police court cases in town during the month.

ADDITIONAL TP. APPOINTMENTS

Lieut. Col. Johnson is Assessor And Tax Collector — W. A. Patterson Retires From Laid Position — Jas. D. Stuart Road Supt.

The North Grimsby township council met in special session on Tuesday evening when further appointments of municipal officers for the year were made. Reeve Mogg presided and all members were in attendance.

Owing to conditions prevailing and the need of following up tax collections during the township council this year decided to put into effect a new system providing for constant attention throughout the year to tax collections in order to ensure that all the revenue possible from this source was obtained.

Mr. W. A. Patterson who has held the office since the year 1926 or for a period of twenty-three years was presented and was again offered the position, members of the council expressing their satisfaction with the diligent and efficient manner in which he had always fulfilled his duties.

Mr. Patterson, however, felt that the increased attention which he would have to give to the collection of arrears of taxes under the new system would require his time at a season when he would be busy engaged on his fruit farm and after careful consideration of the offer said he would have to decline the position under the new arrangement being put into effect by the council.

The council received his intimation with regret and with reference was made to his long and faithful services to the township in the position of tax collector.

The matter of the appointment of a successor was then taken up and one motion of Councillors Durham and Critchfield, Lieut. Col. W. W. Johnson was appointed to the position in succession to Mr. Patterson at a salary of one-half of one per cent or $3.00 per thousand. The position had previously been filled on a salary basis.

The council also re-appointed Mr. Johnson to the position of assessor on motion of Councillor Durham and Deputy Reeve Graham at a salary of $300 and postage.

The appointment of the road superintendent also came up for consideration. Mr. Jas. D. Stuart being re-appointed on motion of Deputy Reeve Graham and Councillor Smith, his salary for the year 1934 to be $600.

William Montgomery was re-appointed to the Library Board for a period of three years. J. O. Koshko was also re-appointed treasurer officer, while the council appointed Arthur Walker, Harry Schwarz, A. Baker and G. L. Book, fence viewers for the year.

GRAPE GROWERS WINES LTD. TAKES OVER TORONTO WINERY

Modern New Plant Acquired and Growers Will Crush Own Crop and Manufacture Own Product — Will Help Stabilize Price of Grapes — To Be Growers' Company.

A representative group of grape growers of the Niagara Peninsula, who are owners of large acreages, has announced that the growers have definitely decided to go into the business of the manufacture of wine on their own account and have acquired control of a Toronto company. This will place them in a position to crush their own grape crop and manufacture their own product in an effort to stabilize the industry and overcome the uncertainty of marketing which they have had to contend with the past few years.

Mr. J. B. Puddicombe of Winona, who is to head the new company, has made the following important announcement in connection therewith: "The new organization feels that, with the growers actively interested in the wine industry, great strides should be made to further improve the quality and distribution of Ontario wines. We have acquired one of the most modernly equipped wineries in the business to-day. We have taken over a well established concern with a large stock of well matured, fine wine for distribution to the public. Negotiations are under way to acquire several other plants and we feel that, when our plans are carried to completion, we will have a capacity, with our increased holdings, as great as any concern in the business. We want the public to know that from now on the grape growers are and can be a real force in the wine industry of Ontario. With the assurance of my colleagues, who are active growers, the public may expect the finest product that can be grown and made in Ontario."

The Concord Wine Company Limited, of Toronto, absolute control of which has been secured, is one of the largest concerns at present engaged in the manufacture of native wines in Ontario. The newly formed organization which is taking it over is a growers' company, the members of which are nearly all owners of grape acreage. It is understood that about one hundred large growers are interested in the new concern.

The vice-president of the new company is Deputy Reeve Peter Graham, of North Grimsby. In commenting on the formation of the new company, he said: "The Concord Wine Company located on Bathurst Street, Toronto, has been taken over by the Grape Growers Wine Limited and will be operated under a charter secured from the present government in 1931. BOY CHORISTERS VISIT GRIMSBY

Large and Appreciative Audience Hear This Fine Musical Organization.

A large and appreciative audience gathered in Trinity Hall on Monday evening and enjoyed the privilege of hearing the English Boy Choristers of the Royal Military Chapel, London, England. In a varied program of songs, glees, madrigals and part songs they delighted those in attendance, presenting their meritorious program in two parts, one comprising sacred numbers and the other secular compositions.

The boy choristers appeared here under the direction of Carlton Borrow A. R. C. O. and in both their accompanied and unaccompanied numbers displayed a musicianship which won for them general commendation.

The singing of the boys who range in age from 12 to 14 years reflected careful training, the choristers rendering many difficult compositions most effectively, particularly showing their artistry in the unaccompanied numbers.

E. Lewis, aged 14 years, Welsh Gold Medalist, is the gifted soloist of the Boy Choristers and he gave a most artistic and appealing rendering to his numbers.

The organization contained only one lad who was with the choristers when they appeared in Grimsby three years ago.

These boy choristers who attend the London Choir School are admitted to that school at ages from 8 years to 16 years and are given an ordinary high school education plus training being among the subjects taught. Choirs are provided from this school for all large weddings which take place in London, various churches in the city also looking after the tuition of groups of the boys while they are in attendance at the London Choir School.

Refreshments were served to the boys in the parlor of Trinity Hall by the L. O. D. E. following the concert.

The organization expressed itself as well pleased with the large audience present and the appreciation shown of their program which was also given at the high school in the afternoon. Mr. J. R. Giblin made the arrangements.

Thanksgiving Day in 1897 was observed pretty late in the year, November 28th being the date and A. P. Havelin in a half page advertisement was offering some splendid holiday bargains at "Grimsby's Favorite Shopping Place." He would sell the most some very fine suits at from $5 to $9 and overcoats at from $6 to $9, men's heavy fleeced lined underwear at $3 and 75 cents and good cassimere hose at 25 cents, guaranteed sugar 21 pounds for one dollar, and 37 does dinner sets at from $6 to $10. In the dressmaking, millinery and dress goods departments exceptional values were offered to the good housewife.

Rev. R. J. Forman supplied the pulpit of the Methodist Church at Jordan Station. The previous Sabbath while the ladies of the Presbyterian Church announced a sale of fancy goods at Jordan on Dec. 28th.

Rosa, of Buffalo, N. Y., was a visitor in town; Edrick Farrell had arrived home from London with a badly crippled thumb that had been caught in the gearing of a crane at the Leased Engine Works; vanDuser and his wife were local fruit dealers with wholesale branch in Winnipeg; he handled Grimsby fruits in the inner and California products in the outer; Mrs. A. Torrey was running the Grimsby Bazaar and announcing beautiful presents for Christmas shoppers.

A fine granite monument had just been erected in Queen's Lawn cemetery to the memory of the late David Havelin for many years principal of Grimsby public school; Sam. E. Mahony was in the butcher business and advertised the fact that he would have for the Christmas trade "beef by the carcass" — heavy by the load and chickens by the bushel; A. F. Carpenter, 108 1/2 acre farm on lot 2, concessions 4 acres; R. Haffield, was offered for sale; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Campbell had moved to Grimsby from Hamilton and St. John's Presbyterian Church Sunday School were going to hold their Christmas entertainment on Dec. 18; vaudeville services were being held in the Methodist church and meeting with great success; Jas. A. Livingston announced that he is again in the auctioneering business; the funeral of the late Ole Fjorstad took place to Mount Osborn cemetery, Beamsville, the pallbearers Harry Farrell, Arthur Norton, Almer Gilmer and Wilbert Gilmer; Public School Inspector Ireland had been a visitor in the local school and was much pleased with the proficiency shown by the pupils, he also stated that Grimsby had one of the best conducted schools in the county and the poorest school building.

Capt. W. F. Gies was in the concrete sidewalk business and had a gang of men busily engaged laying

Week of Prayer Services Conclude

On Thursday evening of last week there was concluded a very successful series of services held in Grimsby in connection with the Week of Prayer.

The final service was held in the Presbyterian church and was addressed by Rev. A. D. Sutherland, minister of St. John's Presbyterian church in Hamilton.

When introducing him, Rev. Graham said the Rev. Mr. Sutherland had the largest mid-week prayer meetings among the Presbyterians in Hamilton which helped foster a deep spiritual atmosphere that comes from having a praying congregation who depend on contact with a higher source.

Rev. Sutherland's address was filled with practical teaching, the minister speaking from the text, "To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna," found in Rev. of St. John 2-17. In commenting on the text, he said, "What that manna is we do not know. We don't need to know. But he speaks of something not easy to obtain. In anything worth while that is easy to obtain. It is easy to sit down and slide down a hill but if we want to climb we must use energy. We must spend and be spent in order to ascend which is the purpose of life."

"This is not an easy business. No one says it is easy but its dividends are eternal. Banks may fail but treasures laid up in heaven are for eternity, where moth nor rust cannot corrupt. Eye hath not seen nor ear heard the things prepared for them that love Him." No, it is not easy but yet at the same time the chief of sinners can do it. Paul was the chief of sinners yet he became the greatest of saints. It was he who said, "I can do all things through Him who strengthens me," and then warns us not to drift and slide along with the current. We must place a goal.

The speaker declared that this drifting and sliding nationally was the cause of our present trouble. "If we as individuals return to Him, Jesus said, 'I will come to you.'"

The following from this district are spending the winter in the South, being listed as having registered at the City Information Bureau, St. Petersburg, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Milligan, and Aymer Milligan, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Dickmeter, the Misses Mildred and Dorothy Dickmeter and Orville Dickmeter, of Grimsby Beach; Mrs. M. Book, J. W. Buck, Mr. and Mrs. William Everett, James Flood and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Reid, of Beamsville; S. H. Rittenhouse and Miss Vera Rittenhouse of Vineland.

Alfred Greenwood Of Grimsby Beach Observes 91st Birthday

It is not often that a man lives to celebrate his 91st birthday anniversary.

Mr. Alfred Greenwood, of Grimsby Beach, celebrated this happy event on Sunday last, January 14th, at his home in the company of his family and a few friends. Born in Yorkville in 1843, he came to Canada at an early age, and was educated for a teacher. His interest in education led him to the book shops and it was not long till he was on the road as a commercial traveller representing several publishing firms. His travels from Halifax to Winnipeg gave him an opportunity to inspect other industries, climates and products and when he retired from the road with a competence he showed his wisdom in selecting a spot in the Garden of Canada at Grimsby Beach where he purchased and operated several fruit farms and still lives on one at the Beach. He is frail in body, clear in mind and is able to say that his life is like the end of a Perfect Day. Travelling, fruit growing, literature, especially poetry, have given him health, comfort and inspiration. May his health continue and his tribe increase to the wish of his friends.

Wishes Council Bon Voyage

The following communication was read at the meeting of the Grimsby town council on Wednesday evening: To the mayor, reeve and members of Grimsby town council:

Gentlemen: You are to be commended on your courage in tackling the job of steering the municipal ship Miss Grimsby on her course through troubled waters. It is no pleasure trip on which you are embarking, but one which calls for a combination of skill and caution, if you are to come back to port with flying colours at the end of the voyage. As a resident ratepayer of thirteen years' standing, I wish you bon voyage. And, as a ratepayer and, what, prophet or king in my present predicament. Indeed, I propose to commit my creditors the town of Grimsby, in the matter of my tax arrears for 1933. My personal earnings for that year did not exceed $300 and when I pay any interest on my proper mortgage on February 1, my bank balance will be practically nil. Have you any plan to help the distressed small home owners? Some municipalities allow them to work part time to reduce their liabilities. How's chances? Respectfully yours,

RADIO PROGRAMS

Radio Chatter

One by one the larger organizations are taking to the air. It seems that radio has reached the stage where it's something the people look forward to and they're getting mighty particular about the type of entertainment they want too.

And now, at last, Henry Ford is going on the air. We don't know much about the feature or the form it's going to take. But, Fred Waring's orchestra will be featured and that's something. It takes a man with a lot of courage to try to offer opposition to Eddie Cantor's program and that's just what Ford is going to do. The Ford program will be a Sunday evening feature. It starts soon—so watch for announcements.

A correspondent takes advantage of our invitation to write to the column and suggests that in addition to plugging Black Horse Tavern we should mention the V.P. Birthday Carnival. We quite agree with you George. Now that the V.P. birthday carnival has been moved along to five o'clock on Sundays it should prove a very popular feature.

And so the Black Horse Tavern programs have been brought to a close. It is a distinct loss in radio circles here and we believe that interested listeners all over the country must miss them. Here's hoping that so many people appreciated the program and wrote asking its continuance that the sponsors will be moved to bring it back to the air. We appreciate high class programs and after all, the station can't tell, unless we let them know.

The keynote of all broadcasts now seems to be service. They're dishing it up even with the Hockey broadcasts. In addition to the thrilling descriptions of the game by the very capable announcer, Wick, Percé LeSueur is along to give a resume of the game from an old timer's point of view and to answer questions. Percé is an old hand at Hockey and he takes it upon himself to answer any questions you care to ask pertaining to Hockey. He has been given some tough assignments since it started but Percé is right there with the information every time. You can do that, when you've made a life study of a game the way he has. Percé of course is the dad of Doug LeSueur, former sports announcer with C.K.O.C. and now officiating at the microphone of C.K.L.W.

We were glad to hear some old friends back in Hamilton the other day. The Croon-a-Tune Boys—A.E. and Bernice came along to Hamilton to broadcast on the Muskego program. They're smart lads with a marvellous sense of rhythm and harmony and they certainly add a poppy touch to the Muskego broadcast. With them came two new performers, one an accordionist and the other a baritone. All in all the program is much improved. Here's hoping the diminutive Harmony Twins stay with us for some time. By the way, do you know who the Voice of Wisdom is—well it's an old friend of yours—heard many times over C.K.O.C. feed along your guns.

Did you know that Old Man Sunshine could probably tell you just as much about a good many points of interest all around the world as he can about the poems he reads—and that's plenty. Dick the amateur Gardener, used to own a flower shop in Hamilton. George Young's swimming trunks or broadcasts over C.K.O.C. Those are just a few of the facts about Hamilton radio stars—you probably didn't know.

GRIMSBY HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Next Friday night, January 19th, at 7.30, the school's junior and senior girls basketball teams make their first appearance this season on the local gymnasium floor when they play against the St. Catharines Collegiate Institute teams in a scheduled Niagara District C.O.S.S.A. fixture.

Last year G. H. S. and the St. Kitts teams were tied for first place at the end of the schedule.

The regular meeting of the Mothers' Club will be held at the home of Mrs. James Merritt, Adelaide street, on Thursday afternoon, January 18th, at 3 o'clock. At this meeting the election of officers will take place.

Local Items of Interest

Anniversary services will be held in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday, January 21st, both morning and evening.

The children of Grimsby are invited to bring Grimsby Dairy Milk bottles to that dairy on Friday and Saturday of this week when they will be paid a cent for every two bottles turned in.

Major William Mayhew, of Hamilton, was the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of St. Andrew's Men's Service club, giving an interesting address on the subject, "Out of the Depth." The speaker was introduced by Bob Miller. A vote of thanks was tendered the speaker, on behalf of the club, by Walter McEwen.

A new up to the minute permanent waving machine called the Gohrtelsen has lately been installed in the Rose Marie Beauty Shop. It employs the new reconditioning oil process in which the oil is completely absorbed by the hair, beautifying its texture and sheen and actually improving the hair growth. Come in and try it!

Anniversary services will be held in the Baptist Church next Sunday. The preacher for the day will be Rev. Caleb Harris, B.A., minister of Westworth Street Baptist Church, Hamilton. Mr. Harris, the popular pastor, of Westworth Street celebrated his 7th anniversary with that church last Sunday. Rev. Harvey Merritt will occupy Mr. Harris' pulpit on Sunday morning.

GRAPE GROWERS WINES LTD.
TAKES OVER TORONTO WINERY

time an effort was made to raise sufficient capital amongst the Grape Growers to build and equip a growers' winery. While we sold considerable stock to growers at that time, owing to general conditions we were unable to secure sufficient capital to carry out the project and those growers who had purchased shares in the company were returned every cent they had invested. The charter was secured at that time and we propose to operate now under that charter. The Concord Wine Company has a new plant, fully equipped, and one of the most modern in the province. Our object in the beginning was to secure the co-operation of a large number of growers so that we might, through co-operation, be able to have some influence in stabilizing the price of grapes to the growers. We are of the opinion that the profits derived from wine manufacturing should be shared by the growers to some extent at least as they have to bear the labour and expense associated with production. We have already quite a large number of growers who have become shareholders, the shares being only available to those who are bonafide grape growers.

En-Roeve Oakes of North Grimsby, a director of the Company, also expressed the view that it would eventually be a wonderful aid to the grape growers.

Basketball

Two closely-fought basketball games between high school teams on Saturday night, on the Beamsville floor, gave a large gallery plenty of sport. The Grimsby team, within a throw of losing their second, but for the tidy guesswork of Eleanor Freeman on the defence for the home team and the aggressive spirit of Helen Hoshal and Helen Jerome in the dying minutes of the game, the Grimsby girls, with their ready nubs, would have walked away with the large end of the score. The Grimsby team had a fine racket of players to ease up their regulars, while the Beamsville team went through with just a bare "cum. Score: Beamsville H. S. girls, 17; Grimsby H. S. girls, 15.

Only three points separated the boys game, Melbide, for Grimsby, scored seven of his team's points, and Hill, six. Coverdale had six for Beamsville and Prochayn, four. Murray, Tufford, for Beamsville, put up a nice game and also came across with two baskets. The outfits were very evenly matched.

Score: Beamsville H.S. boys, 19; Grimsby H.S. boys 17. Referee R. Locke.

Chester Freese, Grimsby, former was assessed a total of $48 in police court at Smithville on Wednesday last when convicted by Police Magistrate J. H. Campbell of failing to provide proper care, shelter and bedding for his animals. The case, requiring about 3 1/2 hours, was strongly contested and the conviction was largely due to the able manner in which the facts were presented by Miss Shannon, solicitor for the Humane Society. OBITUARY

Mrs. Caroline Slinger

One of the oldest residents of Grimsby passed away early Thursday morning in the person of Mrs. Caroline Slinger, widow of E. Slinger, at her residence, 5 Doran avenue, after an eight weeks' illness. The deceased, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Slough, was born in Louth township 21 years ago and had resided in Grimsby for the last 43 years. In religion Mrs. Slinger was a Baptist. She is survived by four sons, John, of Niagara Falls, N.Y.; James, of Detroit; Cyrus in Cleveland, Ohio, and Harmon, of Grimsby; and four daughters, Mrs. Robert Anderson, of Grimsby; Mrs. Harry Brown, of Fonthill; Mrs. Norman Foster, of Jordan Station, and Mrs. Loyal Piper, of Canfield, Ont. A son, Joseph, died in 1915.

The funeral which was attended by a large number, took place on Sunday afternoon. Interment was made in Queen's Lawn cemetery, Grimsby.

Mrs. John Alway

A wide circle of friends learned with regret of the untimely passing of a highly respected citizen of North Grimsby in the person of Mrs. John Alway, on Saturday evening last. The deceased lady was seriously injured in a fall at her home on January 16th and passed away in the Hamilton General Hospital.

The late Mrs. Alway who was in her 68th year was born at Rockport, Ohio. Following her marriage, she came to Grimsby some 34 years ago. Alway and one daughter, Mrs. Jessie K. Campbell both at home; also five brothers survive: Edward, Hensle, Tampa Fla., Augusta Hensle, Cleveland; William and John E. Hensle, North Elon, Ohio, and Charles, Jennie, Ankerst, Ohio.

PEACH KINGS DEFEATED

AT DUNNVILLE 4-2
 In a clean hard-fought battle at Dunnaville Tuesday night, the Mudcats defeated the Grimsby Peach Kings 4-2. Only three penalties were handed out by Referee Fennie as they were all for minor offences.

Dunnaville opened the scoring in the first period when Houser lifted a long one from the blue line which fooled Kline, dropping between his feet and rolling into the corner of the net. In the second period Phillips put the Mudcats two up when he scored from close in on a pass from "Shooter" Vaughn.

Facing a two goal deficit in the third period, the Peach Kings presented a determined attack and were rewarded with a goal in the first five minutes when Stone worked his way in and fooled Price in the Dunnaville nets. The Mudcats came back very strong and ran in two quick goals, the first by Karg on a pass from Green and the second by Smith on a shot from the side. Grimsby registered the final tally of the game, Duffield scoring to make the final count 4-2.

Dunnaville — Goal, Price; defense, Karg, Parks; centre, Walthuff; wings, Phillips and Smith; alternates, Houser, Robins, Green, Vaughn.
 Grimsby — Goal, Kline; defense, Stone, Miller; centre, Farrell; wings, Rummery and Lawson; alternates, Best, Hand, Duffield, Stewart.
 Referee — Geo. Penny, Niagara Falls.

CRYSTALS ADVANCE IN HOCKEY RACE

The St. Catharines Crystals added two points to their record when they defeated Port Colborne 3-1 at the Grimsby Arena on Tuesday night. Port Colborne out-played the Crystals in the first period scoring about ten minutes after play started and were only prevented from scoring three or four more goals by superb work by the diminutive "Lick" McGregor in the St. Catharines net. A goal in the second period and two in the third gave the Crystals their fifth victory of the season.

What might have been an interesting game was marred by very poor handling on the part of the referee who at times completely lost control of the play. Foul and Bradley started for the horns, with McGregor, Turner and Blair the pick of the Crystals.

CRYSTALS TAKE LEAD IN INTERMEDIATE RACE

The St. Catharines Crystals took a firm hold on first place in the intermediate group when they came from behind to defeat the Dunnaville Mudcats 4-2 at the local arena last Friday night while the Peach Kings remained idle by virtue of the postponement of their scheduled game at Port Colborne.

Although they outplayed their opponents by a good margin in the first period, the Crystals were unable to score, Abbott in the Dunnaville nets proving too good for them. At the end of the second period Dunnaville were leading 1-0, Smith having scored on Karg's rebound while St. Catharines was a man short.

In the third period the Crystals presented a determined attack and while Karg and Houser were serving penalties for tripping, Downey scored on a long shot which completely fooled

OBITUARY

C. Ernest Woolverton
 The funeral of the late Charles Ernest Woolverton was held from the funeral home of Dods, Worth, Marshall and Brown, Hamilton to Queen's Lawn cemetery, Grimsby, Thursday, January 11th where a service was conducted at the grave by Rev. Ballard of the Anglican church.

Mr. Woolverton who was a landscape architect, was well and favorably known in Grimsby, having lived here for many years, which was his birthplace. His father was Linus Woolverton, eminent horticulturist, who specialized in apples and had so much to do with fruit culture in the Niagara district in his day. He was a member of the old 64th Regiment Band, of Grimsby.

For the past few years Mr. Woolverton has been living in Sarnia and only last fall moved to 19 Victoria Ave., Hamilton.

He had spent the summer in Grimsby and appeared in good health so that his death which was quite sudden came as a distinct shock to his friends. He was 64 years of age.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, Mary Ethel Blair, four daughters, Mrs. Francis Liddle, Windsor, Miss Belle Woolverton, Sarnia, Mrs. Mayne Watson, Sarnia and Miss Gwendolyn at home, also a sister, the wife of Professor Mors of Chicago.

Early Blair

Russell Blair, of Vineland, received word of the death of his brother, Earl of Tintara last week. He underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Hamilton hospital nearly a week ago. He leaves besides his parents, two sisters at home and one brother, Russell, of Vineland.

Abbott. Bob Pinder followed this with another counter in short order, moving from a scramble in front of the Dunnaville net. The Crystals lend was short-lived, however as Phillips evaded the count, scoring on a goal pass from Houser. With about five minutes left to play the Crystals scored two quick goals, the first by Blair who took Pinder's rebound and the second by Turner who circled the Dunnaville net and slipped the puck into the corner. Both goals were scored with the opposition a man short. The final count was 4-2, with St. Catharines gaining a well-earned victory. Ten penalties were handed out by referee "Dad" Farrell but they were all for minor offences.

COMMUNICATION

To The Editor:

Dear Sir:

Recently I noticed a letter in your paper on the advisability of tagging cats. On first thought it would seem an excellent idea to tag cats but would it accomplish the good your correspondent thinks it would?

I am a cat lover and deeply deplore wantonly making a dirty, miserable creature furiously pee up at a passerby and then silently and swiftly disappear around a corner. Poor thing, and it looks just the way my intelligent contented puss would look if I didn't care for her and enjoy her company, so she knows she is welcome.

The cat among other things, the writer says, is an animal of prey and the inoffensive birds and squirrels suffer because of her freedom. But there was no mention made of the rats and mice that suffer also because of her freedom.

Grimsby's population is composed mostly of fruit farmers and every good farmer knows he is wise when he has half a dozen strong breed and milk fed cats around, that wage an endless battle against those rodents which are condemned as pests because they are sleek and eat our stored up food.

It is a well known fact that a cat first preys on rats and mice because she likes them. If there are none about she looks up and goes for the birds. She wants and needs meat and will get it one way or another just as humans do. Can you blame her? If you have a pet cat and no mice or very few, you will find if you feed her meat she will not do much bird catching.

But why not tag cats? To tag an animal a collar must be put around his neck. A cat is not like a dog—that is, a pet—no she is every where. Try to pen up a cat and see how small a space she can squeeze through; high up, low down, it makes no difference, she'll find the outlet if there is one. That's why she's a good thing and nothing misses those glowing eyes but the clumsy collar might easily get caught, strangling the cat and its owner mourns the death of an intelligent, much thought of pet, besides losing the dollar for the tag. And how about the already over-taxed farmer? Wouldn't it be rather hard on him with his six or eight feed protectors out in the barn.

Where do the strays come in? I can't see that they come in at all. Is it not the humane society's job to remove all suffering animals with no homes, whether dogs, cats or whatever they are? And is it not our duty to report it if we know any such animals are about?

So Mr. Subscriber there really wouldn't be much gained by tagging puss. That's why she has not been tagged all these years. It is not practicable.

"AWAY BACK WHEN" COLUMN APPRECIATED LIKES NEW FEATURE

To The Editor,
 Grimsby, Ontario.

Dear Sir:

Heartiest felicitations on your securing the services of Mr. J. Orion Livingston to present us with a weekly glimpse of "Away Back When."

Twenty-eight years of reading "The Independent" and close association with Mr. Livingston has made me appreciate the great literary ability of that gentleman, an ability which he would probably disagree.

His gift of seeing and his word portraiture, his fearlessness, place him in the forefront of journalists.

I always regret that he did not see fit to join the staff of the Daily Mail of London, England, when invited to do so by Lord Northcliffe, then Mr. Harmsworth, as I feel sure he would have had then the opportunities for eminence and recognition. Mr. Harmsworth did not issue invitations of service to me.

I am looking forward with the greatest interest to his promised weekly contribution. He has been so closely in touch with the happenings of Grimsby and the County of Lincoln that the Cavalade of the actors and events of the past will be a ghostly touching again of the hands we knew of old; men who worked, perhaps not always in accord, but who were giving of their best.

I trust Mr. Livingston will write of his personal experiences during the hectic period of 1914 to 1918 when he, with conspicuous success, played such a strong lead in recruiting for our overseas' forces.

Few men have been more intimately associated with events than Mr. Livingston, and fewer still have the talent of making men and happenings live again.

With every good wish for the prosperity of The Independent and its new feature.

Yours truly,

C. H. BROMLEY.

PRE-PAY YOUR TAXES

The time between April 1st and September 1st (the proposed date for first tax payment for the current year) is always a difficult period — finance.

This is more so this year, due to inability of many property owners to pay last year's taxes, resulting in an increase of the town's indebtedness to the bank.

The Council are not anxious to advance the dates for payment of taxes, feeling that most taxpayers are hard put to make their payments at the usual dates of Sept. 1st and December 1st.

In order to assist the Town's finances, a By-law was recently passed by the Council, allowing a discount of 5% per annum for prepayment of taxes.

The Mayor and Council appeal to those taxpayers who are in a position to take advantage of the by-law to do so by prepaying the whole or part of their taxes.

This would not only assist your council to finance, but also result in some saving on bank interest.

Woman's Chatter...

By MAUR M. MORGAN

UNFAIR

During the past few weeks Toronto movie lovers have had the opportunity to view the screening of a book beloved by the feminine sex. The adaption warranted their enthusiasm and after viewing it myself I quite agreed with the critics that the star deserved much credit. Nevertheless when several reviewers gave consistent plaudits to the star—only one gathered that the play depended completely on one character—the rest of the cast just so much scenery. In many cases this is true, but in this instance it was most certainly not the case. In fact two characterizations rivalled if not surpassed The Big Name. I say, though Hollywood booms out the advertising and a new name—a new star appears, let us give credit where credit is due. (Yes—I have got a chip on the old shoulder this morning and feel I must say a few words for those I like.)

1-2-34

Do you realize, fair and dark readers, that if you write the date in figures and you happened to write a letter on January second, nineteen thirty-four you wrote it thusly 1-2-34 and you will have to wait 100 years before you can do it again? It's a fact!

A PLEASING RECEPTION

Whether you have seen or heard Katharine Cornell—you've likely heard of her. This is beside the point—when the public demonstrate their desire to see and hear a famous actress by waiting hours for her arrival—delayed by the elements—there is something smacking faintly of the Victorian days when the stage had ardent followers and augurs well, perhaps, that the Green Rooms of the theatres will again resound to well-trained voices. In the meantime let us look at the press account of Miss Cornell's reception in Seattle, Washington. For five hours an audience which packed the Metropolitan Theatre to see the actress make her Northwest debut waited the arrival of the company which had been delayed by floods. Though no definite news as to whether it would be impossible to stage a performance that night could be announced until after the audience had been over two hours in the playhouse, yet the playgoers cheerfully remained in the theatre in the hope that Miss Cornell's train would reach Seattle in time for the play to be acted. At 10:40 o'clock the management was able to inform the spectators that Miss Cornell had arrived and that, if they were willing to wait until one o'clock, "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" would be played.

By 11:10 p.m. the first load of scenery reached the theatre. The asbestos stage curtain was raised. The audience watched the stage crew erect Elizabeth Barrett's Wimpole Street sitting room on the Seattle stage. The actors, rushed to the playhouse in taxis, did not stop to open the great pile of Christmas presents waiting for them, but hurried into their costumes. Finally the curtain rose at one o'clock the morning after Christmas night scheduled for Miss Cornell's first appearance in Seattle.

The thousand and more spectators, who patiently had sat five hours to see Miss Cornell, gave her a rousing welcome when the curtain rose showing her as Elizabeth Barrett reclining on her couch. For a moment no one was able to speak; then the performance proceeded. It was four o'clock when Elizabeth at last escaped with Flush under her arm for her London home. When the last curtain fell, the audience burst into cheers and the players received the most extraordinary ovation experienced during the long career of "The Barretts of Wimpole Street."

WATCH YOUR DIET

By GENE BENT

Young widows are increasing at an alarming rate. Who will be the next? In the scheme of things women are the arbiters of the food of their families. They are the "experts" who prepare or order the family meals and it is to them who are usually responsible for their own health and that of their families.

The question is "How correct are our women on diet and the preparation of meals?" The answer is found in the fact that ill-health is to be found at every turn. Many are the poignant tragedies which stalk in the wake of bad cooking and bad diet. Many a woman is a widow today because she failed in her prime duty of providing her husband with proper food and a proper diet.

The human system is a marvelous mechanism. It will stand up for years under the most astonishing food errors and abuses. But, let the vigor of youth pass and the years of dietetic indiscretions begin to assert themselves. Then, about the age of forty, the tragedies start, as daily the death notices of the press tell us the story of men of 40, 45, 50 and 60 dropping off. It is common to read of men dying as a result of an abdominal operation. Others are found dead in their offices, on the golf links and others are stricken at this or that public function.

We feel badly, of course. Friends and the press tell us that so-and-so died of overwork, business strain, over exercise, etc., etc., and such may be the case, BUT PRIMARILY THE CAUSE IS BADLY COOKED FOOD AND A BAD DIET.

Women should take to heart the lesson of so many widows. Most men are amenable to instruction from their wives on food and if women fail to carry out their bounden duty of studying and applying their knowledge in their own households they are merely piling up for themselves the inevitable tragedy of widowhood.

Shoes High in Thrust And Low in Heel

Madame Schiaparelli says that "shoes must be essentially simple, and to fitly complement the clothes of 1934-35 they must be high in the thrust and low in the heel." She herself wears plain five or seven o'clock highkin oxfords—correct and smart on every occasion this year," is her reason for it.

On the Chicago Evening recently the focus of many admiring glances was a Parisienne in a complete ensemble of taupe—from the top of her taupe play-boy bow to the tip of her taupe highkin shoes. Just one strutting and clever slash of color—a vivid jade green scarf.

One does not generally consider a mouth elegant, but nevertheless it's very elegant to look monkish. Cow neck, ropes around the waist, and mounds of highkin on foot. For the winter there is even another monkish mode coming and that Monk's shoes. They are made of highkin and mount very high up the foot, like all other smart footwear just now.

Deserted Skyscrapers Loom as Future Menace

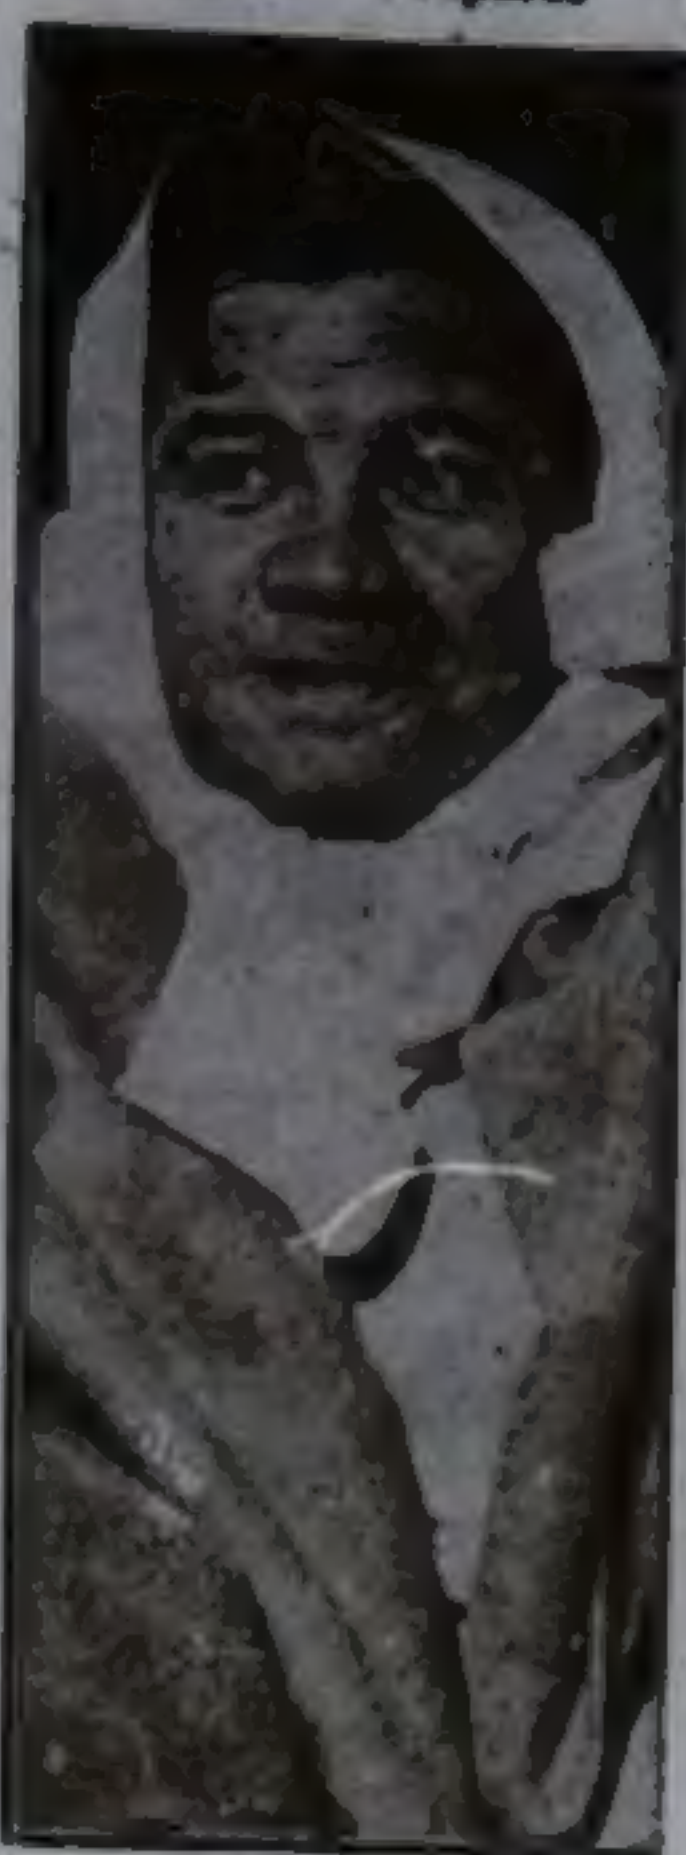

Pittsburgh.—Skyscrapers, say the theologians, may well be the "deserted villages" of the future, abandoned because "creep" will have made them unsafe and high costs will have made tearing them down unprofitable. This theory has been brought out at the annual convention of the Society of Rheologists—the scientists who study the "creep" or flow or fluidity of solids, such as concrete and steel and other materials.

Dr. Eugene C. Bingham, of Lafayette College, asks what will happen to skyscrapers designed for a "life" of 50 years, "if they are not torn down and replaced before the materials in them become anaemic?"

"The theory upon which they are built is that it will be profitable in 20 years to tear them down and build larger structures on the same site," said Dr. Bingham. "But a lot of things can happen in 20 years and it may not be profitable to tear them down at all."

Change in Divorce Laws Again Sought in Britain

London.—Another attempt has been made to bring the British divorce law into conformity with the more advanced systems prevailing in other countries. At the present time adultery is the only ground recognized in British courts.

The British system was found unsatisfactory by a royal commission on divorce twenty-one years ago. New grounds were recommended in its majority report. The law remained unaltered.

The new matrimonial reform bill, which has been introduced in the House of Commons is similar to one which passed through all its stages in the House of Lords in 1929, but never became a law. It proposes to permit divorce to either husband or wife on the following grounds:

That the respondent has committed adultery; has deserted the petitioner for at least three years; has been continuously proceeding five years; has treated the petitioner with cruelty; is undergoing imprisonment under a committed death sentence; is an incurable, habitual drunkard separated from the petitioner for at least three years.

Seven years' absence of the respondent would be deemed sufficient to empower the courts to decree presumption of death. Additional grounds for nullity decrees proposed include:

Unsound mind at the time of marriage; liability to recurrent fits of insanity or epilepsy; a state of mental unsoundness which becomes definite within six months of the marriage.

Houses Too Warm for Plants

Most houses are kept entirely too warm during the winter months for the growing of cyclamen and several other attractive house plants. If cyclamen and primulas are to be raised they should be placed in a cool, light moisture in the air. Flowering plants demand from two to four hours of sunlight every day.

English Baker Wins 6000 Medals

Declares A Good Loaf of Bread Work of Art

Rev. for—"The 'wizened baker of England,'" J. J. K. Mackman, topped fondly one of the 6000 medals he has won an announced that a good loaf of bread is like a work of art—a thing of personality.

The machine-age is all right in its place, he said, but the making of a loaf of bread still requires a personal touch, especially in the kneading. "It is a thing of personality," he declared. Mr. Mackman, whose full name is John James Nathaniel Mackman, is a big, well-built looking man with iron gray hair and a face that glows with the ruddy warmth of 45 years before the oven. He is in the United States taking a "business holiday" as he puts it, visiting bakeries.

Since his arrival, the man who taught the Greeks to put straw in their bread and thereby became a Cavalier of the Order of Merit, has visited American bread and found it "very good" although entirely different from the English product.

"Our bread is not as sweet," he explained. "Over here you use sugar, milk and fat in proportions that we do not. Our bread has more of a calling flavor."

Mr. Mackman, who began in his uncle's bakery at Huf, Eng., as a lad of 13, won his first competition in 1910 and has been winning cups and medals pretty consistently ever since. At one time he was "clinging off at the rate of five or six a week."

"It's a gift," he said. "I inherited some talent and the rest is perseverance, hard work and devotion to detail. That's the secret of craftsmanship—paying attention to small details."

With Mrs. Mackman he returned to New York from Woods Hole, Mass., where they visited Mrs. Mackman's sister, Mrs. Charles Gennell. They stopped in Boston to try some baked bread, and found them good.

While Mrs. Mackman caresses her husband to be the master baker, he developed that she does all the baking in their own home.

But wholesome baking has reached the point now, he added, where there is no need for any woman to do the baking herself, unless she likes the exercise.

Cold Shoulder To Filmland

Blue Book Issued—Los Angeles Blue Books Ignore Movie Stars

Hollywood.—The blue books of Los Angeles continue to turn a cold shoulder on the film folk.

The blue book of Los Angeles society has just been released, showing only a very few additions from the movie ranks. One is John Wayne, western film star, who "crashed" the social circle by marrying Josephine Beant, daughter of Dr. Jose Beant, Dominican consul to Los Angeles.

Joel McCrea, who stashed high on the social ladder, has been dropped from this year's edition of the blue book. McCrea recently married Frances Dee. Irene Rich also was omitted following her divorce from David Blumenthal, socially prominent Pasadena man.

Theda Bara, former screen diva, remains on the list as the wife of Charles Brabin, director. Cecil B. De Mille, producer, and John Hays, director, just about complete Hollywood's representation.

New York theatrical circles are represented in the edition by Paul Gregory, Richard Bonelli, R. D. McLean, Elaine Hammerstein and Pearl Eaton of the three dancing Katons.

"New York, as compared with Chicago, is a corner of Heaven."—Royal S. Copeland.

For Byrd Expedition

Care of the Dairy Cow

Notwithstanding the low prices obtained these last two years for dairy products and by-products, dairy farming continues to provide most farmers with a steady, even if decreased, income. The farmer cannot do much individually to have the price increased per hundredweight of milk produced; on the other hand, through systematic farming and stock raising, he can lower the cost of production and very often increase its volume.

On a great number of farms, most of the cows have now completed their production year. It is the right time therefore for the farmer to take a pen and figure the yield and income from each cow. The next step is to remove from the herd the poor cows which eat into the income from the good ones. This is being done on a large scale at the present time in the Lake St. John district, and is a good example for other districts. After this culling, let us remember that the dairy cow is an excellent means to transform cheap fodder and grain into more valuable human food. If the cow has inherited good milking qualities, her milk production will be in direct relation to the treatment she will receive, not only for a week or a month but for 365 days of the year. This is synonymous with good care and proper feeding both winter and summer. In winter, provide good hay, roots or ensilage supplemented by available grains. In summer, good pasture and proper care are essential.

Five years of experimenting at the Experimental Station at St. Anne de la Pocatiere show that 6 to 7 pounds of roots (Swede turnips or mangels) can replace one pound of meal, and that means much just now.

Farmers who read the agricultural press already know that the renewal and fertilizing of pastures will open new avenues of profit, for the area devoted to pasture may thus be reduced and grain production increased. This will mean bigger clover crops for better cows. Fewer and better cows produce better feeds and feeding will produce the same amount of milk more economically.

The Life of a Farmer

In his address to the Canadian Society of Technical Agriculturalists at Ottawa, Sir E. John Russell, director of Rothamsted Experimental Station in England, said that even "with all the help of science and the kindly office of the extension officer and other well-wishers, life can never be made entirely easy for the average farmer. He may be protected by quotas and tariffs and helped by scientific advice as much as you like, but he must always take risks. It is usually a choice of evils, and he has to decide between one or more courses of action, neither of which he would choose to take, but he has got to do it."

"The farmer's life is well illustrated by an incident I once met with in the west of Ireland. There was a great stir because a lady of seventy was going to marry a gentleman of seventy-two. But the matter was explained quite simply by one of her neighbors: 'The winter is coming on, and the post has to be got in for fuel, and the potatoes have to be lifted and brought in; it was a case of either marrying a husband, or buying a donkey.' Well, that is very much the farmer's situation. He is called upon to choose between two courses neither of which is exactly what he would like to do. Our job as agricultural experts is to give him more alternatives, to try to make the various possibilities better for him and the decision between them more easy."

On reaching Inglethorpe Infirmary Mrs. Broad was stripped and put to bed, no notice, she declares, being taken of her protests.

Then a doctor, called to examine her, searched her handbag which she had insisted on the ambulance men bringing from her home.

Indisputable evidence of her real identity was found. Mrs. Broad was released—and taken home in a state of collapse.

The real patient, Mrs. "A," was then discovered and taken away in Mrs. Broad's place.

The affair has roused the whole of Bedford Park to a high pitch of indignation.

"I Heard Someone" "The same thing might have happened to any of us," said a neighbor. "It would seem that even if the ambulance men had called at the right house, any woman—whether the patient or not—who had answered the door would have received similar treatment."

"I heard the screams and the commotion going on outside Mrs. Broad's house, and could not understand it. 'The ambulance men took no notice of anybody, but just went on pushing Mrs. Broad into the ambulance.'"

"We all felt sure something dreadful had happened, but all inquiries made to the ambulance people were ignored."

"Something Dreadful" Mrs. Broad has put the matter in the hands of her solicitors, and legal action is likely.

Meanwhile, Middlesex County Council is making the most searching investigation, and it is understood that those thought responsible have been suspended from duty pending an inquiry.

Forcibly Taken To Mental Ward By Mistake

Ambulance Collects Wrong Woman in London—Inquiry Under Way

London.—An amazing story of how ambulance men, sent to an address in Bedford Park W., to remove a woman patient to a mental ward, took a neighbor by mistake, was revealed recently. The victim of this astonishing error was Mrs. E. F. Broad, wife of a business man now in South Africa.

The ambulance men knocked at her door, and, as soon as she opened it, grasped her by the arms. Though she screamed and struggled, they are said to have placed her in the ambulance and driven away.

Mrs. Broad lives at 54 Homestead Road, Bedford Park, W., with her three children.

Mrs. Broad said that her mother was terribly upset by the affair.

"The strain of it has been terrible," she said. "There was a terrible mistake made by someone."

Near the Broad's lives a woman, Mrs. "A," whose removal to Inglethorpe Infirmary mental ward for observation had been ordered by the medical officer of health for the district.

During the day time, an ambulance drove down Homestead Road and stopped at number 54.

What followed is best told in the words of Mrs. Broad.

"I had a dreadful shock," she said, "for I at first thought, on seeing the ambulance and the nurse, that one of my children had had an accident."

"One of the ambulance men said 'Are you Mrs. A. We want you to come along with us.'"

"I could not understand their attitude. I told them that I was Mrs. Broad, but before I could say anything more, the men had grabbed me and started to push me towards the ambulance."

"Naturally, I resisted as forcibly as I could, but that seemed to make them all the more determined. 'Nothing I could say or do made any difference. As I was dragged across the pavement my screams brought neighbors running to their doors.'"

"One of them even came across to the ambulance and addressed me by name, asking me what the trouble was about."

"I was unable to answer, for I was forced into the vehicle with the nurse, 'Bruised and Bewildered'."

"Bruised and bewildered by all that had happened, I decided that it would be best to resist no more. I asked the nurse if she would ring up my doctor and several other people to establish my bona fides."

"My 'captors' only tried to soothe me in reply."

"Although I tried to keep calm, I was thinking all the time of my children, and what they would do when they returned home and found me missing."

On reaching Inglethorpe Infirmary Mrs. Broad was stripped and put to bed, no notice, she declares, being taken of her protests.

Then a doctor, called to examine her, searched her handbag which she had insisted on the ambulance men bringing from her home.

Indisputable evidence of her real identity was found. Mrs. Broad was released—and taken home in a state of collapse.

The real patient, Mrs. "A," was then discovered and taken away in Mrs. Broad's place.

"We all felt sure something dreadful had happened, but all inquiries made to the ambulance people were ignored."

"Something Dreadful" Mrs. Broad has put the matter in the hands of her solicitors, and legal action is likely.

Meanwhile, Middlesex County Council is making the most searching investigation, and it is understood that those thought responsible have been suspended from duty pending an inquiry.

Recent Events From Overseas

Plays Great Game—Knows Baby Dead
Birmingham, Eng.—Joe Bradford, Birmingham's centre forward, played a great game in the local derby against Aston Villa recently.

Yet a few hours before the match his baby had died.

The baby was born two days before and he had spent the long hours between then and the day of the game in an anguish of anxiety.

When the news of the baby's death reached the Birmingham club an official immediately asked Bradford if he would like to retire from the game.

"I will stay," he said.

And he played well.

Two years ago Joe Bradford was the hero of a cup final. He had been suffering for weeks from an injured leg, but it was decided to play him in the Wembley match between Birmingham and West Bromwich.

West Bromwich won 2-1. Bradford scored Birmingham's only goal.

Dislike Josephine Baker

Helsingfors, Finland.—Miss Josephine Baker, the colored dancer, is having an unhappy time in the Baltic countries.

Last week she was not allowed to perform in Estonia. Later her appearance on the stage of the Helsingfors theatre caused a riot.

The famous "dusky artist" was assailed with stink bombs, accompanied by an outburst of catcalls and whistles.

"Go back to Africa!" shouted the enraged Finns.

The performance had to be broken off.

Meanwhile, outside the theatre, the police had to be summoned to disperse an unruly crowd.

First Baby in Nudist Colony

Paris.—The first baby to be born in the nudist colony on an island in the River Seine—has arrived to the wife of a French professor.

He weighed eight pounds. The professor and his wife, both prominent members of the colony, decided upon a "100 per cent, nudist birth," as a scientific experiment.

Despite the recent bitterly cold weather the mother has taken her morning swim in the Seine and walked five miles a day on the island.

Mother and child are doing well.

Charged Life

London.—A wartime airman's remarkable record was revealed at London sessions recently when he pleaded guilty to driving a motor car to the danger of the public.

The man, Mr. Leo Philip Scott-Paine, was fined £25 and ordered to pay 25 guineas costs. His license was suspended for three years.

Sir Henry Curtis-Bennet, K.C., defending, revealed that "Mr. Scott-Paine served throughout the war in the Royal Naval Air Reserve; was awarded the distinguished Service Cross and medals from other nations; flew continuously under bombardment at Dunkirk; in 1917 was shot down in the North Sea, was picked up after five or six hours by a German destroyer, was confined at six different prison camps; escaped from three of them; and was consequently placed in solitary confinement for three months.

Mr. St. John Hutchinson, prosecuting, offered no evidence regarding a further charge of driving a car while under the influence of drink, to which Mr. Scott-Paine had pleaded not guilty. The jury found him not guilty of that charge.

Impassable Deal

London.—Mr. F. A. M. Mazine, the former managing director of the Ambassador Club with which Mr. Maudsley Gregory was so closely associated, has bought the Bristol Grill, Cork Street W., for £20,000.

Mr. Mazine is believed to have made the purchase on behalf of a syndicate. He is one of the youngest restaurateurs in London.

During his seven years at the "Ambassador" he met many society celebrities, for the club was designed to be the most luxurious in London.

It was reported to have had a membership of 12,000.

Paris Seeks to Stem Tide Of Students Asking Help

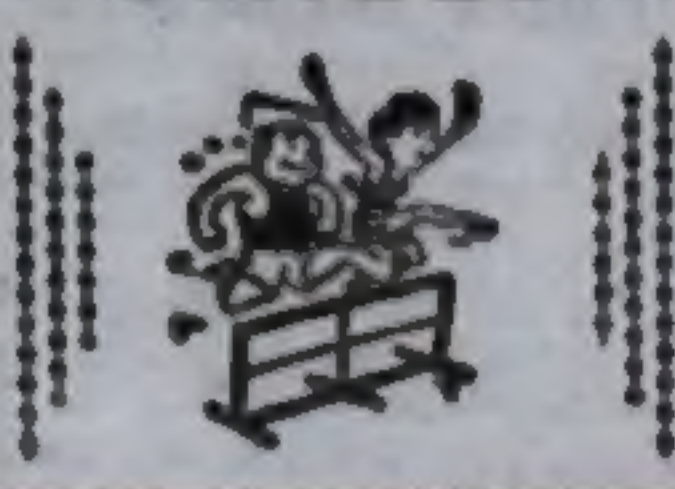

Paris.—Paris is faced with a student crisis. The Quartier Latin has closed these hazy days of light-hearted Bohemians and the students crowd to the great schools in ever-increasing numbers, but as the students increase, jobs diminish.

Examinations are made more difficult, newspapers hold warnings, but still the students come and the problem grows. Five hundred of those who were graduated in science in 1932 are unable to find jobs. In arts 767 are unemployed.

"Sometimes," writes Claude Belanger, general secretary of the Unions Nationales des Etudiants de France, "a medical doctor is engaged at 15 francs a day selling pharmaceutical preparations. But most of them remain without work with nothing in their pockets but a piece of parchment." The position of the art student is, if anything, worse.

Urgent action is advocated. Reorganization of the medical and legal profession is pressed. It is suggested that from the period of the elementary school the child's special aptitudes be studied and careful counsel given on the choice of a career.

English Girl Makes Success of Operatic Work in Germany

A Lancashire girl, Miss Margery Booth, is England's only representative on the German singing stage and has won recognition seldom granted to a foreigner at the Berlin State Opera.

Miss Booth is now in her fifth year at the Opera House and during that time has developed from an obscure beginner to a leading member of the company. This year she sang at Bayreuth, before thousands of people who went for the annual Wagner Festival.

She was asked to carry the Holy Grail in "Parsifal" and later talked with Herr Hitler about music.

Miss Booth was born in Wigan and lived with her grandparents, who, she said, "absorbed anything connected with the theatre." As a young girl she went to Southport and finally to the Guildhall School of Music in London.

"I remember with great pleasure my days at the Guildhall School," Miss Booth said. "I had lessons from Jenny Hymans and Madame Strangways and I owe a great deal to them."

When she was 21 Miss Booth came to Berlin and after only six months with one of Berlin's most famous teachers her opportunity came. At ten o'clock one afternoon, stage designer, heard her sing and insisted that she should have an operatic audition.

It was a success. Professor Hoerth, director of State Opera, offered her an engagement, and Miss Booth was enrolled on the spot.

"I had a terrible time at first in the opera," Miss Booth explained. "My German was still imperfect and I had to sing difficult Wagner roles without a proper knowledge of the language and with no stage or orchestral rehearsal." That trouble has gone now. She speaks German and French fluently and sings as well in Spanish and Italian.

Miss Booth scored a personal success at Bayreuth and was presented to the former Crown Prince and Crown Princess and to Herr Hitler.

Federal Farming In Great Britain

It will astonish many people, says the Implement and Machinery Review (England) to learn that the federal way of farming is still being practiced in England, even in the twentieth century. Laxton, Nottinghamshire, is described as the last village in England that is still farmed on the manorial system, which reached its zenith about 1300 A.D.

Here every farmer lives in the village street instead of on his holding, and his haystacks, sheds, etc., all alongside his cottage. The parish is divided into three huge open fields, each of about 400 a., so used for wheat, spring corn and dead fallow in turn, and there is also a large common. Every farmer or "villain" may use the common and may graze his quota of 20 sheep on the stubble of the other fields as soon as they have been reaped and officially "broken" by the ringing of a bell. In addition, his 30 or 40 acres of land are divided up into about 10 portions scattered far and wide over the three open fields.

On one of his bird-hunting expeditions in South America, Frank M. Chapman—Curator of Birds in the American Museum of Natural History—went collecting one day with the taxidermist of a local museum, an Italian named Fernando Forti, "one of the honestest men with whom I have been in the field," says Dr. Chapman (in "The Autobiography of a Bird Lover").

"By profession Forti was a hunter of Condors, and he proudly informed me that he had sent the wings and tails of 16,000 Condors to milliners in Paris."

"He had seen 800 Condors in a single roost and shot 114 in a single day," adds the dean of American ornithologists. "But, as a rule, the birds were netted over the carcasses of a fat horse or bull, 44 birds being the largest number captured at one throw of the net."

"For each set of 80 feathers contained in a tail and a pair of wings, he had received $20 in gold. Because of the war the price had now fallen to $10 per Condor, and, with a few shovels of feathers, Forti exclaimed dramatically:

"I refuse to take part in the destruction of such a noble bird for such a low price!"

Such pity!

And here is a story of a White Cockatoo, told to Dr. Chapman by

STONEY CREEK

That the Stoney Creek township council means business in its determination to get the back taxes collected, is evident from the appointment of Neil Hopkins as tax collector, whose sole duty will be that of collecting taxes, whereas formerly he was also assessor.

C. C. Pettit, Fruitland, has been appointed assessor.

During the recent municipal election there was considerable discussion over the omission of a number of names from the voters list, many people believing that they were eligible for a vote in municipal elections, as well as Dominion and provincial elections.

This is not so, however. Farmers' sons and daughters are entitled to vote at municipal elections, but a farm must contain 20 acres, which excludes many fruit growers' sons and daughters. Heads of households are also entitled to a vote, together with their wives, but not their sons and daughters. It was through a misinterpretation of the qualifications of a municipal elector that the discussion arose.

VINEMOUNT

The Vinemount Horticultural society met in the hall on Monday evening, Dec. 10, the amateur gardeners, Mr. Palmer, of Waterdown, district director, spoke. The election of officers resulted as follows: William Wright, president; Mrs. Knox Jeffery, honorary president; Mrs. George Oldham, first vice-president; Mrs. John Althouse, second vice-president; W. Van Duser, Mesdames H. Dupew, W. Brand, Eric Jeffery, Harry Murdy and Enos Jeffery, directors for two years; Mesdames E. Tweedie, R. Bell, Edward Travis, F. Shuler and Miss Annie Johnston, directors for one year; A.W. Little and W. S. Johnston, auditors. An executive meeting to elect secretary and treasurer will be held on Thursday.

SERVICE STATION ENTERED INVESTIGATING THEFT

Provincial Constable Pearson, of St. Catharines, investigated a breaking and entering and theft case at the Pearson service station, corner No. 20 highway and the Grimsby-Smithville stone road, but was unable to get any trace of the culprits. During Friday night the place was broken into and a quantity of tobacco, chocolate bars and soft drinks stolen.

Police have also been actively investigating throughout this district in an effort to run down the alleged ring of chicken thieves which has been operating successfully for some time in the surrounding territory.

The Week's News of The Surrounding District

BEAMSVILLE

Mrs. L. E. Telford was hostess to a number of friends at the tea house on Thursday, in honour of Mrs. Hobden, who was leaving on Saturday for a trip to England.

John Oldham, an old Beamsville boy, now of Valparaiso, Mich., paid a flying visit with friends here last week.

Mrs. James Hobden left on Friday for London, England, to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Andrew Patton, wife of Ontario's fruit commissioner in Europe.

Mrs. William Stewart entertained at bridge. The prize winners were Mrs. F. Sutherland and Miss Wilson.

With one member of the court's report, only necessary routine matters were dealt with at the first session of the year. The members present were Reeve Osborne and Councillors Mackie, Prudhomme and Seymour. The clerk was at once instructed to proceed with the calling of a nomination meeting to elect one councillor, and nomination date was fixed for Monday, January 15, from 7:30 to 8:30 o'clock, and if an election is necessary it will be held on January 22. The same election officers will preside. Murton A. Seymour, St. Catharines will again be retained as corporation solicitor. Rev. A. De Rose was the council's appointee to the public library board.

The clerk was authorized to secure from the county registry office a monthly record of property transfers within the corporation.

The return of the collector's roll was extended until March 29.

Council passed a number of regular accounts before adjourning.

Mrs. William Andrews was at home recently for an enjoyable musicale. Those contributing to the pleasure of the occasion were Mrs. George Shepherd, Mrs. Fred Jeffery, Mrs. R. Halter, Mrs. Garrett, Mrs. C. McArthur, Mrs. Oakley, Miss M. Tester and Mrs. Charles Tallman.

St. Alban's W. A. has made the following official appointments for 1934: Honorary president, Mrs. E. F. Mansell; first honorary vice-president, Mrs. G. K. Andrews; second honorary vice-president, Mrs. J. P. Paige; president, Mrs. S. T. Croft; first vice-president, Mrs. F. Ransom; second vice-president, Mrs. John Dawe; recording secretary, Mrs. H. Gillespie; corresponding secretary, Mrs. P. Andrews; treasurer, Mrs. Harry Prudhomme; secretary Living Message, Mrs. V. Oakley; secretary Little Helpers, Mrs. F. Brown; superintendent Junior League, Mrs. S. Gibson; work committee, Mrs. S. J. Wilson, Mrs. Strong, Mrs. Guest, Mrs. Stone; auditors, Mrs. F. Barrackough, Mrs. Strong.

B. H. Culp and Garfield Rouse have been elected officers of the Lincoln and Welland Holstein Breeders' association.

Lumber valued at over a hundred dollars was stolen from the yards of the Beamsville Lumber and Supply Co. during the past week. On just what night Manager Shaffer is unable to say. The material was in the piles, however, some ten days ago when stock was taken and none of it had been sold prior to the day when it was found missing.

Five hundred representatives of the A. Y. P. A. from the three St. Catharines churches, Niagara Falls, Niagara-on-the-Lake, Thorold, Merrittville, Stamford, Grimsby, Welland, Port Colborne and Beamsville, gathered here on Thursday evening for the district's annual "stunt" night. Reg. Brown, president of Niagara Falls, was in the chair.

Each of the associations staged a short play, a sketch or a musical act, the association's shield being the trophy. Niagara Falls, winners for the last two years, had to give way to Welland this time, who won with their wax works. Niagara Falls, however, was a close second, and Beamsville, putting on the boards a replica of an A.Y.P.A. meeting in 1889, was in third place.

Some clever stunts were put across, and each association worked hard to make its presentation a prize-winner. The members of the local association served a light lunch after the program.

Frederick Ransom was elected president of the Horticultural society at the annual meeting on Thursday night. Following is the list of officers who will continue the good work of the society for the coming year: Honorary president, Mrs. Norman Wilson, first vice-president, Mrs. C. H. Prudhomme; second vice-president, Mrs. E. T. Philp; secretary-treasurer, S. Wismer; executive, Mrs. C. Good, Mrs. Pittfield, Mrs. Jesse Spruce, Mrs. N. Wilson, John Huntman, Mrs. Franklin, Mrs. G. O. Givens, Mrs. Frank

GRASSIE

A very interesting meeting was held by the Grassie Women's Institute last Thursday afternoon at Mrs. I. Southward's home.

The Roll Call, "Where I Stand and my husband" proved very amusing. Thoughts for the New Year were given by Mrs. I. Pielt.

Life's Journey was read by Miss Metcalfe.

A recitation was appreciated from Mrs. I. Southward.

Mrs. W. F. Ellis, related some interesting history of the farm she lives on, and also exhibited some rare needlework, which included a beautiful piece of lace made from flax.

Mrs. C. Southward gave a demonstration on binding rugs from old silk stockings and also exhibited a beautiful hooked rug.

There was a fine display of oil, China, silk, furs, cake plates etc., which have passed the century mark, and had adorned the tables of our grandmothers in by-gone days.

A contest "My first photo," was enjoyed by all. Mrs. D. Nelson and W. F. Ellis received the prizes.

A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by the conveners, and a social half hour was spent over the tea cups.

The February meeting will be held at Mrs. H. Secor's home, February 15th. The girls of the institute will provide the programme. A debate is to be prepared "Resolved that it is better to engage in domestic service than to work in a factory." Don't forget this meeting.

The Community Club held their regular weekly party in the Grassie Hall, last Tuesday evening with a good crowd attending. The prize for each was won by Miss K. Cowan, Mrs. J. Johnson, L. Moffatt, and F. Black.

The Post Orchestra of Mt. Hamilton furnished the music for dancing. The new officers for this season are as follows: President, Ross Deemer, 1st vice-pres., Miss C. Hopkins; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. J. Johnson; Asst. Sec'y, Eric Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brown and his daughter, visited with Mr. and Mrs. F. Black on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Upper and family of Hamilton, spent Tuesday evening with former friends here.

Mr. Aubrey Walker, had the misfortune to cut his wrist with the axe, while cutting wood, and his son, Reg, sprained his ankle the same day, while hurrying down stairs to administer first-aid to his father, who was suffering from loss of blood. Their many friends will be glad to know they are able to be out again.

Mr. C. Merritt and Mr. S. Hobbs, of Hamilton visited with Mr. and Mrs. F. Black and M. Merritt on Sunday.
